Women's Rights & Empowerment Network

Bring South Carolina's leading voice on women's policy and advocacy to your next event. WREN's engaging presentations and interactive trainings equip participants with practical tools to navigate public policy, advocate effectively, and create meaningful change in their communities.

Our Offerings

- Advocacy 101: Learn the fundamentals of advocacy, how to communicate with decision-makers, and how to take meaningful action.
- Legislative 101: Understand how the South Carolina General Assembly works, how a bill becomes law, and where your voice can make a difference.
- Educational Presentations: Invite WREN to speak on issues impacting women and girls, including public policy, health, economic well-being, civic engagement, and gender equity.
- Customized Trainings: We'll work with you to design a presentation or workshop that meets your organization's goals and audience.

Pricing & Scholarships

- Standard 60-minute nonprofit training: $150
    - Pricing for longer workshops, customized trainings, and keynote presentations is available upon request.
- Scholarship Opportunities
    - We believe every organization should have access to high-quality advocacy education. Organizations with limited financial resources may apply for a full or partial training scholarship when submitting a request. Scholarships are awarded based on organizational need and available funding.

Booking and Payment

Once a training request is approved, WREN will issue an invoice confirming the training details, applicable fee, and payment instructions. The invoice serves as written confirmation of the agreed-upon scope of services.

Payment is due within 30 days of the invoice date unless alternative arrangements are approved in writing. Payments may be made by check or through WREN's approved electronic payment method.

Fees for customized trainings, extended workshops, keynote presentations, travel, or materials will be communicated and agreed upon before the training is confirmed.

Any scholarship, reduced fee, or fee waiver must be approved by WREN and documented in writing before the training date.

Cancellations or requests to reschedule should be submitted at least 7 business days before the scheduled training. Organizations may remain responsible for non-refundable costs already incurred by WREN.
